A Borrowed Scot - Karen Ranney

A Borrowed Scot by Karen Ranney 2011 Scotland-set Historical Romance Nominee RT Book Reviews A Borrowed Scot is the third book in the Tulloch Sgathan Trilogy, a set of books about a mirror and how it affects three different women.

A Borrowed Scot (The Tulloch Sgathan Trilogy, #3) by Karen ...

Not a fan of Ranney's, but A Borrowed Scot was fairly decent. Not terribly exciting, but rather a gentle read that meanders slowing to the finish. The character development was good. I just had a hard time with Montgomery's lack of communication. Veronica was the gem here, but she didn't shine bright enough to save the story. I give it an average 3 stars.

A Borrowed Scot Excerpt - Karen Ranney

A Borrowed Scot Excerpt. Early spring, 1866. London . The damn fools were chanting now. He felt like an idiot, and Montgomery Fairfax wasn't partial to playing the idiot. The circle of men in their brown monk's robes and cowls were muttering together as if they'd practiced this ritual for months, if not years. He could swear he heard beads clicking together as they shuffled into a circle
