Book Review: Born Wild by Tony Fitzjohn | Opinions of a Wolf

Summary: Tony Fitzjohn never quite fit in in England or the middle class existence he was adopted into at a young age. By his early 20s, he was roaming around Africa, and eventually found a job with George the elderly Englishman famous for his belief in reintroducing lions into the wild whose efforts were chronicled in Born Free.

Tony Fitzjohn - WildlifeNOW

Tony Fitzjohn is an intriguing and unique blend of knowledge and skills. He's more at home in the bush than the city, yet he is the capable administrator of a complex, multifaceted organization that is the steward of worldwide support for the conservation effort to which he has been committed his entire adult life.
