House of Illusions By: Pauline Gedge. I IT WAS THE BEGINNING of the month of Thoth when I first saw her. I had been detailed by my commander, the General Pails, to escort a Royal Herald south into Nubia on a routine assignment and we were on our way back when we put into the village of Aswat for the night. The river had not yet begun to rise. It was flowing slowly, and although we were making

Pauline Gedge - Book Series In Order

The second novel of The King's Man series written by author Pauline Gedge was released in the year 2008 by the Penguin Books publishing house. It was titled Seer of Egypt and continues to depict the main characters in the form of Huy and Pharaoh Amenhotep. In the opening sequence of the plot of the novel, it is shown that Huy has risen to become the King's Seer. Yet, the patronage of House of Illusions book by Pauline Gedge - Thriftbooks Pauline Gedge, as usual, is probably the best writer of "Egyptian Fiction". Her characters and scenes are exquisitely detailed, whether she writes in the third or first person. House of Illusions continues the story of Thu, and her son, who were separated under edict of Rameses III.

The ending and events, although near the end were rather fantastical and almost predictable. If you have not read
