In My Skin by Kate Holden | The Monthly

The road to junkiedom and prostitution is littered with clichés. Kate Holden's memoir the tale of a good Melbourne girl who becomes a heroin-addicted prostitute mostly avoids the romanticism that often plagues such stories. She's not averse to shock value and In My Skin contains

In My Skin by Kate Holden Canongate Books

In My Skin is the work of a stunningly talented writer who both graces and surpasses her material, subverting popular assumptions about addiction and prostitution while making the extraordinary seem commonplace and the ordinary deeply alluring.
