Into That Forest' was a wonderful book, unlike anything else I've ever read before. The story takes the reader on an incredible journey through the Tasmanian outback with friends Hannah and Becky. Thoughts of this book lingered with me long after turning the final page and I'm looking forward to passing it onto others who haven't yet discovered such an amazing title.

I ordered "Into That Forest" knowing it was different than most of the books I read. Even though it was an obvious work of fiction, the author made the girls seem real and that the tigers could have raised them. The story was sad, but parts were funny and warning. The hunting by the tigers and girls were exciting and I could imagine if you were
