Modern France: A Very Short Introduction - Vanessa R ...

In this Very Short Introduction, Vanessa Schwartz argues that modern France, as both a world stage and a global crossroads, is an essential actor in the development of contemporary culture. Indeed, French is the only language other than English spoken on five continents, and more people still visit France than anywhere else in the world. Modern France: A Very Short Introduction by Vanessa R ...

But, to my delight, Vanessa Schwartz has done a very good job with this challenging task in her new book, which is part of Oxford's already truly outstanding "Very Short Introduction" series. Schwartz's book, though a delight for anyone interested in France, is also very well suited for those new to the topic and wishing to be introduced to this fascinating country.
