Project MUSE - The Role of Imperialism in Modernism

Paul Stasi's Modernism, Imperialism, and the Historical Sense opens with an account of this muddle and attempts to resolve it with, surprisingly, imperialism, a subject that on its surface seems to have borne little interest for modernist writers. Yet if the modernists make little overt response to imperialism, modernist method, with its hodgepodge of linguistic modes and cultural references, depends on the historical and cultural accumulation that, Stasi writes, only occurs in the
