This series is right up my alley. Really, it should set up shop. I would keep it in business all by my lonesome. I love the spy angle, the mom angle, the returning-to-a-former-life angle, the double-life angle.

Spy Mom is actually two novels, Original Sin and its sequel To Sin Again. I'd borrowed the first book from a friend, so I was happy to see that the sequel was being combined with Original Sin (that way I could own a copy myself). Spy adventure meets a tale of domestic mommyhood, but somehow this series manages to combine suspense and humor very smoothly. I would definitely recommend it to fans.
