The Angry Buddhist is a well put together story, moves along at a good pace and kept me increasingly interested - all qualities I like in a novel and don't always find. While on the surface it seems to be just a political caper with criminal edges, there is a satisfying level of insight from a collection of well developed characters and their interlocking relationships.

The Angry Buddhist by Seth Greenland, Paperback | Barnes ...

The Angry Buddhist convincingly explores mendacity in its modern American forms: contemporary politics, middle class sexual mores, the criminal justice system, and the limits and cost of filial love. Greenland is able to mix satire with crime to produce humor that is vibrantly caustic and subjects that are alarmingly authentic.
