Beth Kephart's lyrical new book, The Heart Is Not a Size, describes the community's joyous interest in the Americans, their camaraderie and their survival amid poverty, harsh desert conditions and the increasing number of haunting, unsolved muertas murders of young women and teens. Kephart's gentle storytelling captures Georgia's concerns, her fuzzy collisions of optimism and

Review: The Heart is Not a Size by Beth Kephart

Review: The Heart is Not a Size by Beth Kephart Georgia and Riley are best friends and they have been best friends all of their lives, but each girl is protecting their own secrets. They each have their own struggles they are facing and while Georgia is becoming more and more aware of what haunts Riley, she feels paralyzed to help her.
