The Survivors (Memory Boy, #2) by Will Weaver
My copy of "The Survivors" has a personalized message and autograph by his truly. This definitely improved my love of the novel, but does not make up for the out of touch with teenagers vibe it gave me. Mr. Weaver is a lovely writer, does well with disaster writing, and has a good field of work. However at 12 when I first read this book even I caught on that although he is a good writer Weaver

THE SURVIVORS. by Will Weaver. Age Range: 10 - 13

Weaver paints a realistic picture of life without electricity or plumbing, from the constant labor required to keep the wood pile stocked to killing and dressing a deer. And, even more compellingly, in the Newells contacts with others, he portrays a society in which some struggle to maintain cherished values and stability while others
